

KRISTA PETTIFORD

Author, Speaker & Bible Teacher

Helping women discern their season, grow closer to God, and move forward with faith, hope, and purpose—season by season.

Krista Pettiford is an empty-nester mom of four, an author, preacher, and Bible teacher with a prophetic grace. She is passionate about helping women cultivate a closer relationship with the Father so they can know His voice, trust His faithfulness, and move forward with hope and confidence through every season of life.

With nearly two decades of leadership in women's and prayer ministries and a degree in Biblical Studies, she desires to encourage and equip women to discern their season, navigate change with faith and grace, and rediscover vision, purpose, and hope for the future God has for them.

She believes that truth and transparency transform lives. Through biblical teaching, Spirit-led wisdom, and prophetic insight, she helps women heal, flourish in their God-given calling, and embrace each season with enduring faith and confidence in God's goodness.

Krista is the author of Brave Change (IVP, 2027) and the creator of the Seasons Journal and Seasons Quiz, resources designed to help women gain clarity and capture the beauty, blessings, purpose, and lessons within each season.

BOOKING & CONTACT

Krista is available for:

Conferences • Retreats • Workshops • Panels • Online Events

Booking Inquiries: krista4Christ@gmail.com

Website: www.kristapettiford.com Social: @kristapettiford

SIGNATURE MESSAGES

Every Season Has an Assignment - How to Discern Your Season and Understand What God Is Doing

God works through seasons to shape, prepare, and position us for His purposes. In this encouraging and transformational message, Krista helps women discern the season they are in, recognize God's direction, and stop striving for what's next so they can align with what God is doing right now. Women leave with greater clarity, confidence, and trust for the season they are walking through.

Navigating Change with Faith, Grace, and Courage - How to Move Forward When Life Doesn't Go as Planned

When life takes an unexpected turn, it's easy to feel uncertain and discouraged. In this hope-filled message, Krista encourages women to navigate disappointment, transition, and change with faith and courage. Women are equipped to renew their perspective, release what was, embrace the present season, and move forward trusting God's faithfulness.

The Power and Purpose of Prayer and Intercession - Partnering with God Through Every Season

Prayer is more than a spiritual discipline—it is a partnership with God. Through biblical insight and practical encouragement, Krista teaches women how to cultivate intimacy with God, discern His voice, and pray with greater clarity, confidence, and spiritual sensitivity through every season of life.

Get Your Hope Up - Rebuilding Vision, Renewing Purpose, and Dreaming Again with God

What if God still has more ahead for your life? In this uplifting and practical message, Krista helps women rediscover hope, rebuild vision, and move forward with renewed faith and expectancy. Women are encouraged to embrace the present season while trusting God for the future He still has for them.

Signature messages can be customized for conferences, retreats, workshops, panels, and keynote sessions based on the needs of your audience and event.