SIGNATURE MESSAGES

Between Time: Waiting Well Between Promise and Fulfillment

Often, a span of time exists between what God has promised and when we see it come to pass. Between Time helps women understand how to faithfully navigate seasons when fulfillment seems delayed and God's unfolding plan uncertain. Through biblical teaching and practical principles, women will learn how to remain faithful in the waiting and trust God's timing, while believing that what He has promised, He will fulfill in due season.

Navigating Change: Walking with God Through Endings, Transitions, and New Beginnings

Change is a constant part of life. Some changes we choose, while others arrive unexpectedly. Navigating Change helps women walk with God through endings, uncertain transitions, and new beginnings with faith, courage, and grace. Through biblical wisdom and practical tools, women will learn to release what has ended, recognize what God is doing now, and move forward—trusting God with the future and believing He will work all things together for good.

Choosing What Matters: Making Room for What Matters Most in Every Season

In a world filled with legitimate responsibilities, demands, distractions, and things that need our attention, Jesus reminds us that one thing is needed. Through Mary and Martha's story, Choosing What Matters calls women back to God's presence—to prayer, intimacy with Jesus, and making Him their first priority. From that place, we gain the wisdom and clarity to discern what matters most in our season, what deserves our yes, what requires our no, and how to order everything else in our lives.

Every Season Has an Assignment; Discern Your Season, Recognize God's Purpose, Partner with His Plan

God unfolds His plans, purposes, promises, and prophetic words not all at once, but over time—season by season. Every Season Has an Assignment explores the biblical principles of God's times and seasons to help women understand how God works out His Word through time. Women will learn how to recognize the season they are in, discern God's timing and what He is doing in their present season, identify the assignment He has entrusted to them, and faithfully steward it as His plan unfolds.
